Traditional Classes (Pre-K thru 8th grade)

Sunday 10:15- 11:25am

Traditional classes are for children who are current on their sacraments and are participating in ongoing faith formation as directed by the church. Classes are taught by Catechist on appropriate grade levels. Families with children in Traditional Faith Formation should support the work of the Catechist by being involved in their child's formation by re-enforcing the weekly lessons at home. All children in Faith Formation are expected to attend Mass weekly with their family before or after classes.
